

The cost of healthcare is rising in the United States. Costs have jumped by 30% since 2015, and 68% of patients failed to pay medical balances in full in 2016. This number could reach 95% by 2020.

Let our team work your claims with the best-available tools the collections industry has to offer. Turbo Debt Recovery exceeds the national liquidity rate in healthcare collections of 12-19% and often collects in excess of 21%. Our compassionate and friendly approach leads to a better outcome for you and your patients.

Hiring an outstanding debt collection company is necessary in today's business climate:

"The stakes are higher, the dollars are bigger and therefore, (you) simply can't afford to not be good at this."

— Jim Lazarus, managing director at Advisory Board Co., a hospital consulting company.

We have a proven track record in consumer and commercial collections. We pride ourselves on our three industry differentiators:

EFFICIENT

- » We collect in 60-90 days what others collect in 12-24 months.
- » Our client portal provides 24-7 real-time access, and you can talk to your representative on the phone. We rely on state-of-the-art-technology that results in greater returns for our clients.
- » Letters and calls are made within 24 hours of placement.

RESPONSIVE

- » Turbo Debt Recovery is fully insured, and follows the latest regulatory and compliance standards (IRS 1075, PCI, HIPAA, FDCPA, etc).
- » We understand how to work with a debtor when they're facing personal issues or financial struggles.
- » Turbo Debt Recovery is a zero-complaint company with no sanctions, fines or suits on its record. We hold ourselves to high standards to meet yours.

PROVEN RESULTS

- » Turbo Debt Recovery exceeds the national liquidity rate of 12-19% and often collects in excess of 22%. When an account is placed with Turbo Debt Recovery, our clients know that these accounts will be worked quickly and yield higher results than our competitors!
- » We have collected in excess of $20mm+.
- » If we don't collect, you don't pay.

At Turbo Debt Recovery, our mission is to be the most efficient and transparent debt collection agency while conducting the process in a professional, firm and polite manner. You focus on your patients, while we turn our attention to recovering your balances as quickly as possible. With our custom-tailored recovery process, our team has outranked our competition year after year.
